BUSINESS VALUATION

Kevin Marold is dedicated to the pursuit of justice. He brings close to two decades of professional accounting experience and strong technical acumen to each case, with a background serving in audit at global accounting firms and in-house with Nike.

Kevin's collective experience makes him a valued expert on forensic accounting investigations and damages analysis for litigation and business valuation. He works with commercial litigators, DOJ lawyers, family law attorneys and corporations to solve financial puzzles that help resolve disputes and testifies in support of his opinions.

Determined to find that needle in the haystack, Kevin is keen on using technology tools and enjoys the detective work to uncover any red flags or potential issues. He is ready to ask the tough questions and dig into the details, all while keeping the big picture in mind. Kevin is effective at expressing opinions and conclusions, and at collaborating with others to deliver results.

Prior to joining Morones Analytics, Kevin was a foundational member within Nike's global accounting team in Beaverton, Oregon, managing financial accounting and controls for product creation and distribution. He developed solutions to put accounting systems and processes on the right track. Previously, he worked as an external auditor with Deloitte & Touche in Detroit, Michigan and Grant Thornton in Portland, Oregon.
