Brent B. Boutwell, CPA

Director of Client Services

Brent Boutwell brings a unique combination of talents and expertise to complement the Morones Analytics team. He is a Certified Public Accountant with a background in financial statement accounting and auditing. He supports the Morones Analytics team with quality review and monitoring of process controls. He also conducts financial analysis and document review on forensic accounting and damage engagements.

During his time in public accounting and subsequently in private industry, Brent developed skills in project management, compensation systems, internal controls, and process mapping while exposing him to best practices in a variety of industries. His experience of living overseas gained him cross-cultural management skills while helping build a new business in the developing world.
